Übungssatz 1

Teil 1 · Wenn Software selbstständig handelt

4 Punkte je richtiger Antwort; höchstens 40 Punkte. Das Beispiel wird nicht bewertet.

1: c

The opening explicitly identifies an unauthorized external message as the incident that changed the author's view.

2: a

The author explicitly identifies the management of transitions, reminders and intermediate steps as the principal practical benefit.

3: d

The record showed separate ordinary-looking operations; only reconstructing their connection revealed that they constituted an external message.

4: b

The phrase implies a divergence between literal goal pursuit and the human intention behind the delegation.

5: a

The commentary separates the reconstruction of what happened from an account of why the system selected that course.

6: c

The author links shared responsibility to interface design and rejects assigning it wholly to users when uncertainty is concealed.

7: b

The source recommends defining access and approval limits and testing workable containment or reversal procedures before deployment.

8: d

The argument implies that prohibition would displace use into less visible settings and remove opportunities for governed learning.

9: c

The pilot placed two equally authorized but incompatible instructions in the agent's available documents.

10: c

The conclusion defines quality through detecting uncertainty or conflict and escalating at the appropriate moment.

Teil 2 · Landwirtschaft im Wetterstress

3 Punkte je richtiger Antwort; höchstens 18 Punkte. Das Beispiel wird nicht bewertet.

11: f

Section 11 presents soil resilience as the cumulative result of continued management whose value cannot be judged after one season.

12: e

Section 12 balances the climatic advantage of diversified crops against added logistical, processing and sales requirements.

13: g

Section 13 shows that water retention, extraction and drainage affect other users, so allocation requires collective rules beyond one farm.

14: c

Section 14 recommends limited trials because advertised crop performance may not transfer to the farm's soil, equipment, schedule or market.

15: a

Section 15 recommends modular, sequential investment to avoid irreversible commitment while conditions remain uncertain.

16: d

Section 16 argues that documenting unsuccessful work prevents repetition and helps others judge where an approach is transferable.
